Core Text(s)

As this is an independent piece of coursework there are no specific textbook available for this piece of work, instead you will loan from the library, purchase or read online books that are specific to your chosen coursework title. If you would like to discuss the texts you may require, then please do email me via admin@themisbourne.co.uk and address your email to Mrs Owen.

Bridging Work (to be submitted in your first lesson in September)

Activity 1

Create a timeline of key events within Nazi Germany beginning with the Munich Putsch in 1923 and ending with the end of World War 2 in 1945.

Include:

- The date
- The key people involved
- A brief explanation of the event
- Images to support your understanding

Activity 2

Your coursework will be based on any Nazi Germany topic of your choice. You can investigate the role 'ordinary German citizens' had in the Holocaust, the role of women in the Nazi regime, the economic changes during Hitler's rule, the influence propaganda had on the people of Germany. The possibilities for your coursework are vast and therefore you need to pick a topic that interests you and you would like to investigate, to begin this process there are a variety of videos and podcasts at this website:

<https://www.ushmm.org/teach/key-videos>

Please watch and listen to whichever interest you the most and begin to consider the topic you would like to research for your coursework.

Activity 3

The phrase 'The Hitler Myth' has become synonymous with the Historian Ian Kershaw and is now at the centre of much historical debate. Research and explain what the Hitler myth is in at least half a page. Make sure you use plenty of quotes from Kershaw and other historians that have commented on the Hitler myth.

There are some good articles and you tube videos to help explain what the Hitler myth is and these would be a good place to start.
